LONG BEACH
CITY COLLEGE

A Message from
The Interim
Superintendent-
President

Greeting, LBCC Family!

I am honored to be appointed as Long Beach Community College District's new Interim Superintendent-President. Each of you are a member of my LBCC family, and just like any other family, we go through changes and challenges. Together we seek clarity on ways to support each other, and I hope you know that is exactly what I intend to do within this exceptional Viking family.

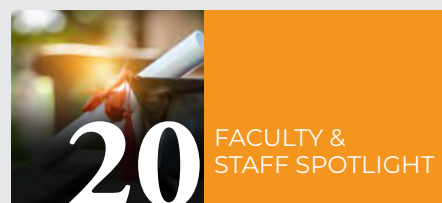

So, while we experienced tremendous change in our day-to-day lives (and our LBCC lives) — we are seeing a light at the end of this year-long tunnel. This honestly means a bit more pivoting and adjusting for all of us. Things are certainly not going back to “normal” but they are going to slowly-but-surely make progress toward face-to-face programming. Just as you will see subtle changes within Los Angeles County as it shifts from the purple tier to the red tier to orange tier, we will be safely making more on-campus services available to our students.

Speaking of progress, there are many changes on campus you might not be aware of. For example, Kinesiology Labs and Aquatic Center (KLAC) continue to develop. There's a new softball field that's being built. The new Building M is being built in the area that once was occupied by Buildings M and N.

Please be sure to invite students to take advantage of the free wi-fi and study area now available on the second floor of the Pacific Coast Campus Parking Structure! As we head into final exams, this will be a welcome opportunity for our Viking students to utilize. We hope to announce some additional study spaces soon.

Please stay safe, and thank you for all you do for Long Beach City College.

Dr. Mike Muñoz

LBCC's
2021 Virtual
State of the College
Ceremony

Long Beach Community College District Interim Superintendent-President Lou Anne Bynum presented the “State of the College” address to the Long Beach community that premiered on March 11. The address included updates on new construction, and success stories from students and faculty. Incoming LBCCD Interim Superintendent-President Dr. Mike Muñoz provided a look ahead at the College's goals for 2021 and beyond. Other speakers included Long Beach Community College District Board of Trustees President Uduak-Joe Ntuk, ASB President Cesar Fiero and Long Beach City College Foundation Executive Director Paul Kaminski.

State of the College 2021

LONG BEACH COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES APPOINTS NEW INTERIM SUPERINTENDENT- PRESIDENT

During a Special Board of Trustees Meeting, the Long Beach Community College District Board of Trustees unanimously voted to appoint current Long Beach City College Vice President of Student Services Dr. Mike Muñoz as the new Interim Superintendent-President.

Dr. Muñoz began his new role on March 4, 2021. His contract will end on June 30, 2022.

The Board of Trustees also announced that the search for a candidate to fill the Superintendent-President position is suspended for now. It will resume next year to ensure the District has ample time to conduct a search for a final candidate.

Dr. Muñoz joined LBCC in 2018 as the Vice President of Student Services. He has led the LBCC Student Support Services team in several accomplishments including the increase enrollment of Long Beach College Promise Direct High School Matriculants by more than 30% from Fall 2018 to Fall 2019, increased the number of Pell Recipients by 27% in 2019-20, expanded services in mental health and basic needs, and supported the increase in completions through the implementation of completion counseling efforts. He pushed for additional technology such as a virtual queue line, chat box functions that have become increasingly used during the pandemic to assist LBCC staff to be more efficient and enhance communication between the College and students. He has also provided support and leadership by serving on the Long Beach College Promise Steering Committee.

Dr. Muñoz has been instrumental in LBCC's work so far in advancing racial equity work at the College as Co-Chair of the President's Taskforce on Race & Equity, and serves as the lead Administrator for the College's Framework for Reconciliation.

He has extensive experience teaching both at the undergraduate and graduate level in counseling and higher education. He's taught master's level courses at California State University, Long Beach and USC, and doctoral level courses at California State University, Los Angeles. He's currently serving as an Adjunct Professor of Higher Education at the USC Rossier's School of Education teaching a leadership course focused on the Community Colleges. Dr. Muñoz was recognized as Outstanding Faculty Member in 2019 from USC's Rossier Student Organization, and the 2018 Dr. Cynthia S. Johnson Award from CSULB that recognized his contributions to higher education through exceptional student mentoring.

His national leadership experience includes: serving on the Board of Directors for the National Community Colleges Hispanic Council, a diversity council of the American Association of Community Colleges; a founding Board Member of COLEGAS, the California Community Colleges Latinx professional association; and as a Member of the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office Fiscal Advisory Committee.

Dr. Muñoz is a proud product of the California Community College system. He attended East Los Angeles College and Fullerton College before transferring to the University of California, Irvine, where he received his bachelor's degree in Psychology and Social Behavior. He received his master's degree in Counseling, and his doctor of education with a specialization in community college leadership, from California State University, Long Beach.

The Board also appointed LBCC Dean of Counseling and Student Support Services Dr. Nohel Corral as the Interim Vice President of Student Services. He also began in his new role on March 14, 2021.

BLACK HERITAGE MONTH 2021

Looks at

'THEN, NOW & NEXT'

There was a robust series of speakers, performances and conversations surrounding Long Beach City College's Black Heritage Month celebrations, set to the theme of "Black Stories: Then, Now and Next."

Some of the highlights included virtual events that featured prominent speakers, faculty members and students participating in thought-provoking conversation, reflection on the past and desires for the future of the Black experience. Here is a sampling of the month-long series:

- A video featuring Board of Trustees President Uduak-Joe Ntuk, Elijah Sims, Shyra Compton, Angela Fowlkes and Student Trustee Richard Blackmon sharing their insight about obstacles and achievements within the Black community.
- "African-American Women in Politics" with Los Angeles County Supervisor Holly J. Mitchell. Moderated by LBCC students Camesha Maxwell and Kyra Childress, and introduction by Board President Ntuk.
- "Culture v. Identity" a discussion centered on Race, Culture, and Identity. Students Oshin Tudayan and Richard Blackmon lead the dialogue that explored the complexities of being Black in America. The event included a sacred libation ceremony by Dr. Kirk Kirkwood and Dean of Student Affairs, Dr. Alicia Kirkwood.
- "Black Burial Grounds & Ancestral Commemoration": A panel discussion with Professor Ama Boakyewa and guest speakers.
- "A Conversation with Keith Boykin" where the author discussed his journey to becoming a CNN commentator and today's political climate with Dr. Jerome Hunt, Student Equity Coordinator and Assistant Professor of Political Science.
- A presentation of "Black Minds Matter" with Dr. J. Luke Wood.
- Superintendent-President Dr. Mike Muñoz hosted a Facebook live discussion with attorney Omarr K. Rambert and Board President Ntuk.
- 'Ageless Soul' Art Show: a Black History Month Art Show with Cynthia Johnson.
- 'Then!' A Journey through time: Dr. Gloria Willingham-Touré discussed her involvement as an advocate for social justice and community support
- Eric Thomas, "The Hip Hop Preacher" was a featured speaker at the Annual Male Summit.

Ntuk, Chico to Lead LBCCD Board of Trustees & Chico, Malauulu Sworn-In

At its Annual Organization, Oath of Office and Regular Session meeting on Monday, December 21, the Long Beach Community College District (LBCCD) Board of Trustees elected Uduak-Joe Ntuk as President of the LBCCD Board of Trustees and new Trustee Herlinda Chico was elected Vice President. Vice President Chico was sworn-in to represent Area 4 of the College District, and Trustee Vivian Malauulu was sworn-in for her second term.

In this role, President Ntuk will preside over the meetings of the Board and act as chief spokesperson for the Board, among other duties. The positions are elected annually among the five Board members, to a one-year term.

President Ntuk was elected in 2018 and is the first African-American male elected to serve on the Board since Long Beach City College's founding in 1927. He earned his Associate of Arts degree in Liberal Arts at LBCC, a Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering at California State University, Long Beach, and his Master of Science in Engineering at the University of Southern California. In 2019, he was appointed by California Governor Gavin Newsom as the State Oil and Gas Supervisor responsible for managing the state's Geologic Energy Management Division. On the LBCCD Board he represents Area 1, covering the Uptown North Long Beach area of the City.

Vice President Chico is the first Latina elected to the Board to represent Area 4, which is comprised of Santa Catalina Island, East Long Beach, and Signal Hill. She has been politically active since the age of 19, and has volunteered on several campaigns and community organizations over the decades. She has worked with and been honored by many diverse groups including the Long Beach Branch NAACP, has won the Long Beach Gay and Lesbian Pride Whitey Littlefield Bridge Builder Award, Centro Cha, captured the Cambodian Association of America's Outstanding Public Service Award and Assembly Member Patrick O'Donnell's Women of Distinction Award. For the past four years, she has been a field deputy for Los Angeles County Supervisor Janice Hahn.

Trustee Malauulu was first elected to the Board of Trustees in 2016, and was unopposed in 2020. She is the first the first Latina elected to the Long Beach Community College District Board of Trustees to represent Area 2 which covers all of West Long Beach and the south-central parts of the city.

LBCC Announces New

Hall Of Fame Inductees

An artistic director, a photographer, a musician, a civil servant, and an educator have been named as Long Beach City College's 2020 Hall of Fame inductees, LBCC officials recently announced.

The 2020 Hall of Fame honorees are: International City Theatre's artistic director Caryn Desai; photographer Duke Givens; concert promoter/arts presenter John Malveaux; retired Long Beach Police Commander Charles Parks; and educator Cynthia Terry.

The announcement and celebration of the 2020 inductees have been delayed due to the challenges faced by the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

LBCC's 2020 Alumni Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and Dinner has been postponed until City and State health mandates can safely allow in-person gatherings. Please visit the LBCC website for further updates.

Established in 1972, the Hall of Fame recognizes former LBCC students who have made outstanding contributions to their chosen fields and communities. The 2020 honorees will join 185 past honorees who have attended Long Beach City College, from former Mayor Beverly O'Neill and actor John Amos, to comedian Paul Rodriguez and philanthropist Naomi Rainey-Pierson, and many others.

For reservations, sponsorship opportunities or other information on the 2020 Alumni Hall of Fame, please contact Paula Barrow at (562) 938-4317 or pbarrow@LBCC.edu.

LBCC Celebrates Completion of $29-Million Auditorium Upgrade

Long Beach City College celebrated the completion of a $29-million renovation of the Auditorium with a virtual ribbon cutting ceremony that premiered December 10 on YouTube. The renovation project is an update for the Auditorium with a new dance studio, new visual display systems, updated lobby with modernized fixtures, costume shop, green room, air conditioning and more.

The Auditorium has hosted famous performers and budding artists since it first opened in 1957. Notable performers who have appeared on the LBCC Auditorium stage include: musicians like Dave Brubeck and Kenny G.; actors such as Val Kilmer and Vincent Price; singer Shirley Jones; and speakers including Dr. Cornel West and CNN political contributor Van Jones. The building had long been admired for its acoustics and history of special performances, but became in severe need of upgrading for ADA compliance and audio/visual advancements throughout the years.

The renovation project began in 2018, and was paid for with funds from Measure E and Measure LB Bonds approved by the voters for renovation and repairs at both LBCC's Pacific Coast Campus and Liberal Arts Campuses. The project architect is SVA Architects. Novus Construction is the general contractor. The Cordoba Corporation oversees and manages all Measure E and LB projects.

Long Beach
City College
Announces
Keynote Speaker
for 2021
Virtual
Commencement
Ceremony

Long Beach City College (LBCC) announced that Long Beach Mayor Dr. Robert Garcia will be the keynote speaker for the 2021 Commencement Ceremony.

Garcia has been a symbol of leadership and first-hand experience throughout the coronavirus pandemic this past year.

“While losing both his mother and step-father to COVID-19, he has guided Long Beach throughout the pandemic with steadfast honesty, compassion, consistency, empathy and hard work,” said Long Beach Community College District Interim Superintendent-President Dr. Mike Muñoz. “These are qualities we look for in a commencement speaker. We want our graduates to be inspired by someone like our Mayor, someone who represents all that is good about our City and our Country.”

An immigrant from Peru, Garcia and his mother arrived in the United States when he was five-years old. Since graduating from California State University, Long Beach, he has been a rising star in the community. While employed at LBCC, he was elected to Long Beach City Council and became the City’s 28th Mayor in 2014. He is the City’s youngest and first elected openly LGBT mayor, and first person of color to hold the office.

“Long Beach City College was my home for many years. I loved the opportunity it gave me to connect with students and empower them to take on whatever obstacles life threw their way,” said Garcia. “This past year has tested all of us, but we are getting through it by working hard together and persevering. I am excited to be able to join LBCC graduates at their 2021 commencement to celebrate their great achievements and all they’ve overcome.”

For a second year, LBCC will produce a virtual ceremony for those receiving their Associate Degree of Arts, Associate Degree of Sciences, and Certificates of Achievement. LBCC graduates, friends and family will be able to watch the ceremony online.

In addition to the virtual ceremony, the Class of 2021 will be welcomed back to walk in LBCC’s next in-person Commencement Ceremony, along with the Class of 2020.

More details will be included on the LBCC Commencement website www.LBCC.edu/Commencement in the near future.

LBCC Athletics
Program
Will Start
In-Person
Conditioning
For Students

Long Beach City College announced that conditioning classes for the Athletics program will resume in-person instruction for some sports on Mon., April 12. These classes are contingent on Los Angeles County being moved to the red tier of California’s reopening classification system and City of Long Beach’s Health Orders’ alignment with the State’s COVID-19 Guidelines for Higher Education.

The conditioning classes will be held outdoors and will practice all of the standard COVID-19 safety protocols that LBCC has implemented during the pandemic.

Sports returning to campus for conditioning include: beach volleyball; baseball; men’s and women’s basketball; cheer; men’s and women’s cross country; football; men’s and women’s soccer; softball; men’s and women’s swim/dive; men’s and women’s track and field; men’s and women’s volleyball; and men and women’s water polo.

The South Coast Conference (SCC) decided on Feb. 25, 2020 to suspend athletic conference competition for traditional spring sports for the 2021 season. However, SCC did allow individual colleges the opportunity to conduct conditioning classes and compete as circumstances allowed.

The LBCC Athletics Department Re-Socialization Plan has been reviewed and approved by the College. It is based on the best practices put forth by the Institutes of Higher Education as well as the health agencies of California, Los Angeles County and the City of Long Beach.

LBCC will continue to follow State and local guidelines including those received from Los Angeles County and the City of Long Beach Health Department for any changes and steps to re-opening.

LBCC Holds Virtual Grand Opening for New Pacific Coast Campus Parking Structure

 PCC Parking Structure Virtual Ribbon-Cutting

Multi-level green facility, completed early and under budget, adds new landmark face to campus.

Long Beach Community College District (LBCCD) celebrated the grand opening of a new parking structure at Long Beach City College's Pacific Coast Campus (PCC) with a video tour and virtual ribbon-cutting ceremony airing from the College's website at www.LBCC.edu on December 17.

The project came in $500,000 under the $18.4 million estimated budget.

Some features of the four-level, energy-efficient parking structure include:

- 530 PCC-convenient parking stalls and secure bicycle parking
- An app for both Android and Apple devices can be downloaded free to display real-time parking availability in the new structure
- Permanent signage identifying Long Beach City College and the Pacific Coast Campus, as well as versatile space for changeable signs to market campus events to the neighborhood and the thousands of people who drive by on PCH every day

- Encourages energy efficiency and strengthens LBCCD's Integrated Energy Master Plan by providing 33 Electric Vehicle Charging Stations, 45 Clean Air Vehicle Spaces, rooftop Photovoltaic (Solar) Panels to help generate energy to power the building, and a Modular Wetlands System with bio filtration to remove sediment from storm water runoff

The project was funded through the Measure LB bond approved by the voters for renovation and repairs at LBCC's Pacific Coast Campus and Liberal Arts Campus.

The project architect is CPC, and McCarthy Building Company is the general contractor. The Cordoba Corporation oversees and manages all Measure E and LB projects.

Basic Needs Grant Comes to LBCC Foundation Just in Time for the Winter Break

The California Community College Foundation's CARES for Food Security fund (LA County CARES Funding) recently awarded the Long Beach City College Foundation with a $275,000 grant to assist students with Basic Needs services.

Funds enabled the LBCC Foundation to purchase six commercial refrigeration units that will allow the Basic Needs Office to provide perishable goods to students at both campuses. Generous gift cards for food were also provided to more than 1,250 students to use during the Winter intersession.

The grant also allowed for outreach to all students enrolled in Fall 2020. More than 24,400 students received a postcard advertising the services of LBCC's Basic Needs area.

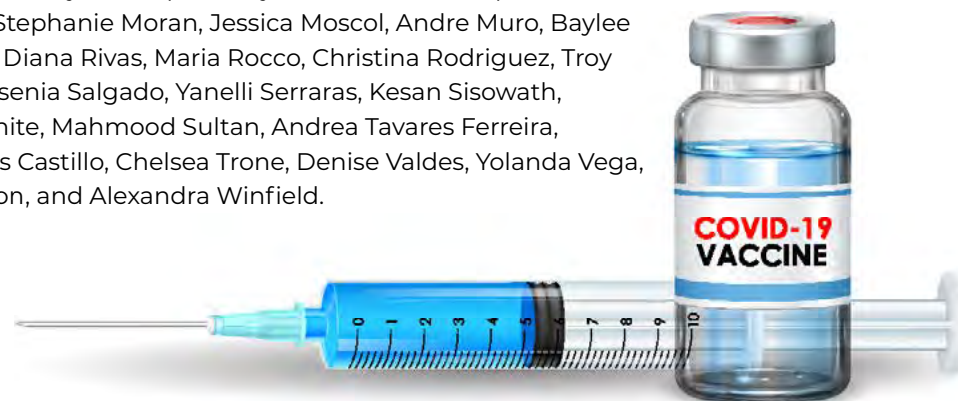

Nursing Students & Faculty Volunteer at Vaccination Distribution Center

Long Beach City College Associate Degree Nursing students and instructors are helping to administer the COVID-19 vaccine at the Long Beach Convention Center. Joined by Mayor Robert Garcia in late January, those in their second, third and fourth semesters were able to vaccinate many colleagues from LBCC, who arrived for their first dose of the vaccine.

Students participating in the vaccine effort at the Convention Center are: Jove Avila, Maggie Bennett, Gwendoline Binarao, Natasha Birchfield, Maureen Blanco, Anna Boras, Maiko Brennan, Stacci Brooks, Kristin Candaza, Sydney Castellanos, Crystal Castro, Jarelle Cenidoza, Jessica Cervantes, Sonny Dam, Roxana DeAvila, Joelle Demonte, Sandra Dunn, Jose Enriquez, Ana Escutia, Rachel Estrin, Natalie Fernandes, Kate Franklin, Barbara Gajate, Maria Garduno, Jesse Gonzalez Huerta, Melissa Gonzalez, Sarai Gonzalez-Rivas, Brooke Hartwig, Ariel Herzstein, Bibi Lopez, Jenny Lopez, Guadalupe Maldonado, Maryna Mao, Amy Marroquin, Mayra martin Del Campo, Ericka McBride, Katia Mendoza, Shannon Merlo, Stephanie Moran, Jessica Moscol, Andre Muro, Baylee Odom, Marc Pabustan, Yecenia Quinonez, Diana Rivas, Maria Rocco, Christina Rodriguez, Troy Rounseville, Sky Royal, Joceline Salazar, Yesenia Salgado, Yanelli Serraras, Kesan Sisowath, Brittany Soung, Kaleigh Stacy, Bianca Suchite, Mahmood Sultan, Andrea Tavares Ferreira, Chengshi Tian, Judith Torres, Melissa Torres Castillo, Chelsea Trone, Denise Valdes, Yolanda Vega, Briana Veloz, Madison Volz, Gillian Wilkerson, and Alexandra Winfield.

Faculty participating include: Janice Akins, Debi Beitler, John Hawry, Dr. Colleen Peralta, Jeanne Ruehl, Nita Slater, and Dr. Ronda Wood.

LONG BEACH

LBCC Icon Honored with Posthumous Doctorate

England's Durham University recently conferred an honorary Doctorate of Letters honoris causa to the late Mary Thoits, a much beloved leader for Long Beach City College lifelong learners.

The ceremony took place over Zoom on March 11, originating on the Northern England campus with the Vice-Chancellor, the University Warden and staff. Family, friends and students of Dr. Thoits were able to witness the ceremony from the United States.

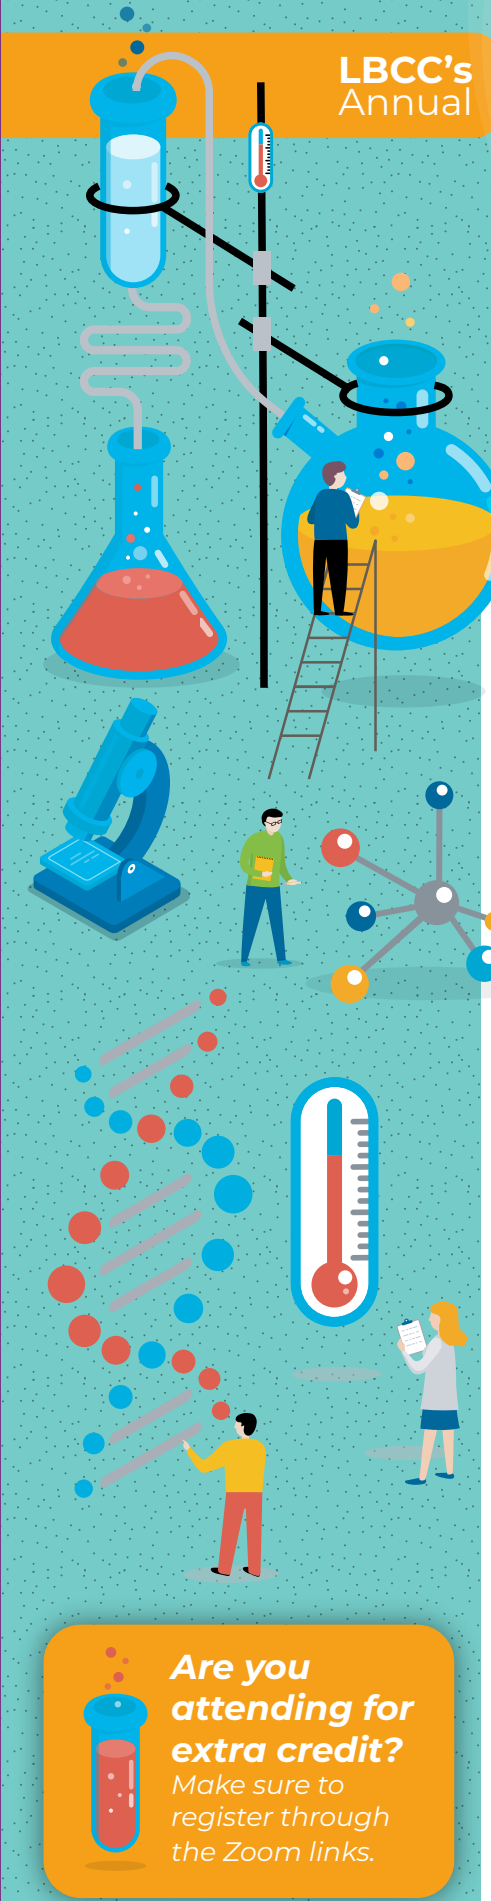

Before her death at the age of 97 this past January, Durham had alerted Mary of the honor that would be bestowed on her. She attended the University for her Senior year in 1946 because of her love of English literature. She long credited the University for helping to shape her into a free thinker, and later in life she established a scholarship for Durham students.

Mary, who until 2015 was Director of the Senior Studies Program at LBCC, was pivotal in the development of lifelong learning programs for senior citizens within the District's communities. She officially retired from LBCC in 2015, but continued teaching part-time until the pandemic closure.

She led a rich life, which saw her boldly travel the world. Thoits was also part of the U.S. Women Airforce Service Pilots, having learned to fly planes at the age of 16 in response to being told that driving cars was not for women. She later spent 15 years in Europe as a Recreation Director for military personnel.

"Mary Thoits reinvented the educational opportunities for seniors," said Professor Maggi Dawn, Principal of St. Mary's College at Durham. "Right up to the end of her life Mary shared her energy with those around her. Her life and achievements personified the Durham ethos and her contribution to lifelong learning is of lasting significance both at Long Beach and here in Durham."

Mary's name will now be listed alongside other alumni such as Charlie Chaplin, in their honorary graduate book signed in their 200-year-old Durham Cathedral, where graduation ceremonies are traditionally held. This was the first posthumous ceremony carried out by Durham University in its 189-year history.
