Career Opportunities

Students are provided lower-division transfer classes for a bachelor's degree in Family and Consumer Sciences and are provided opportunities for developing skills and competencies for multiple roles of home, family, and career. Students are advised to check with a four-year college/university for specific requirements for transfer.

This Certificate of Achievement will prepare students for an entry-level position in any of the generalized fields of Family and Consumer Science which include Child Development, Family and Consumer Studies, Fashion, Foods and Nutrition, and Interior Design.

Program Mission and Outcomes

The mission of the FACS program is to prepare individuals to balance personal, family, and work place responsibilities throughout the life cycle.

Outcomes:

- Develop skills and work place competencies needed for success in the work place. •
- Analyze cultural forces and their effects on the individual and family.
- Evaluate and develop personal finance plans
