Any updates to this guide are posted at http://osca.lbcc.edu. For the Associate in Arts degree, the following courses are recommended, BUT ARE NOT REQUIRED.

RECOMMENDED but not required courses:

†	ENGL 6	Production of Literary Publications	3
	ENGL 7	Editing a Literary Review	3
	JOURN 25	Free Lance Writing	3

Career Opportunities

This field of concentration in the Language and Literature sequence prepares the student for baccalaureate study in English, Comparative Literature, and Liberal Arts. The Creative Writing sequence also prepares the student for possible publication.

Program Mission and Outcomes

The English Department affirms the college's commitment to the belief that reading and writing are central to any student's education. Writing is a fundamental means of developing critical thinking, communicating ideas, comparing cultures, understanding experiences, arguing positions, reevaluating beliefs, celebrating creativity, and exploring the limits of the self. Our aim is to offer students not only a chance to build specific skills, but also the opportunity to experience the value of those skills in a context of challenging academic dialogue.

Outcomes:

- Write academic prose with a clear purpose and effective logical, relevant support from sources.
- Develop and sustain a coherent interpretation of literature that acknowledges historical and cultural contexts.
- Compose poems and short works of fiction using various forms and techniques.
