BP 2745 BOARD SELF-EVALUATION

Reference:

ACCJC Accreditation Standard IV.C.10

The Board of Trustees is committed to assessing its own performance as a board in order to identify its strengths and areas in which it may improve its functioning.

A self-assessment instrument, approved by the Board President, will be used in the Board self-evaluation process. The self-assessment will occur once each year in time for the Board to reflect on the results during their summer retreat.

A summary of the evaluation will be presented and discussed during the summer retreat. The results will be used to set, or update existing goals for the following year.
