Chapter 4 – Academic Affairs

AP 4236 ADVANCED PLACEMENT CREDIT

Reference:

Education Code Section 79500

Responsibilities

- A. The Vice President of Academic Affairs shall be responsible for the overall coordination and implementation of these procedures relating to orderly administration of course credit.
- B. The Dean of Enrollment Services shall be responsible for maintaining orderly administration of course credit.

Definitions

Definitions of all terms used in these procedures shall be those issued by the Chancellor's Office of the California Community Colleges.

Procedures

- A. Any student who passes a College Board Advanced Placement (AP) examination with a minimum score of three in a subject matter will be awarded credit in the appropriate general education area.
- B. For courses in a program of study, discipline faculty will determine the appropriateness of content, the required minimum score, and whether course credit will be awarded on a case-by-case basis.
- C. For any AP examination that the District does not offer a course similar in content, the District will award credit in the General Education area shown on the California Community College General Education AP List. If there is no General Education area that fits the AP Examination, the District may award elective credit.
- D. The District shall post its Advanced Placement Credit procedure on its website.
