

LONG BEACH CITY COLLEGE

LATINX HERITAGE MONTH KEYNOTE SPEAKER

MAYA CHINCHILLA

QUEER WRITER, EDUCATOR, AND MEDIA MAKER

The ChaCha Files:

Central American Myths, Mayhem and Magic

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

2:00 – 3:00 P.M.

LIBERAL ARTS CAMPUS T-1200

Light refreshments and Snacks will be provided following the event.

Long Beach-born writer performs poetry and tells stories that explore themes of historical memory, heartbreak, tenderness, sexuality, and alternative futures. Her work—sassy, witty, performative, and self-aware—draws on a tradition of truth-telling and poking fun at the wounds we carry.

IG: maya_chapina

LONG BEACH
CITY COLLEGE

For Accommodations: 72 hours prior to the event, (562) 938-4558 (voice), (562) 353-4217 (videophone), & DSPS-staff@lbcc.edu. Sign Language Interpreting-Communication Access Realtime Translation: 5 business days prior to the event, contact Event Lead & Stephanie Bonales at sbonales@lbcc.edu or (562) 938-4918 requests are based on provider availability

